

Eric Bailey's guiding principle can be summed up in a single word –

Vision.

Whether trying to create a successful business or the life of your dreams, the outcome you truly desire is not something that happens magically. You need a clear picture of what it is and what it looks like. Eric has helped over 1.5 million people to craft a vision for themselves and their organizations, and turn it into a reality!

Eric is one of the world's foremost speakers on the subject of motivation and vision. Drawing on successful careers in professional sport, executive management, sales, and as a husband and father, Eric is the spark that can ignite the burning passion that dwells in each of us. He draws on his unique life experiences and a wealth of knowledge in the field of personal and organizational excellence to create powerful and inspiring keynotes that leave audiences in awe. With presence and personality, he commands a room like few can.

Eric holds the Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) designation, conferred by the National Speakers Association and the International Federation for Professional Speakers. The CSP designation has strict standards and a rigorous five-year certification process during which speakers must demonstrate both experience and expertise. Less than 10 percent of all speakers worldwide have this certification and it represents one of the highest achievements possible for a speaking professional.

Eric continues to inspire audiences around the world with his story and the incredible power of vision. He has delivered talks and training sessions to many multinational corporations, including Nike, McDonald's, Ford, Nissan, Reebok, Toshiba and Canon, to name a few. He has also brought uplifting, youth-focused messages to students at hundreds of schools around the world.

The visionary power of Eric Bailey is poised to transform your next meeting or conference into something extraordinary.

"Your ability to vary your content, and captivate the audience with your personality, energy, and passion is truly remarkable."
